Convocation* 2009

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

To the graduates of 2009:

Congratulations!

It is a great pleasure for me to be with you on this special occasion, to shake your hand and wish you well as you set out on the next venture in your life. You have much of which to be proud, since the successful completion of your University of Winnipeg degree bodes well for your future success, in your career and in your community.

And all of us benefit from your success, because society is immeasurably enriched by the kind of critical and creative thinking you have acquired here.

Whatever you choose to do, whether you change the world or just change the life of one individual, do your very best at it, and know that we will be watching you with pride.

H. Sanford Riley, CM

Chancellor,
The University of Winnipeg

To the graduates of 2009:

Our priority is to offer the very best in post-secondary education and to nurture in you the special sense of pride and belonging that makes The University of Winnipeg experience so unique. It is my hope that as a graduate you will carry this pride with you, as I do.

According to our students, in both the Globe & Mail and Maclean's Magazine, UWinnipeg ranks in the Top-10 on an annual basis as one of Canada's leading post-secondary institutions. It is our goal to have all our graduating students, year after year, leave us with the same high level of satisfaction.

As you know, we are an evolving campus.

The University of Winnipeg Foundation's ambitious Capital Campaign, with a target of $70-million, is allowing us to better meet the needs of students now and into the future. The expansion of Duckworth Centre, the enhancement of public access to Spence Street and the refurbishment of Wesley Hall are complete. The Canwest Centre for Theatre and Film is a new and vital part of our campus. The McFeetors Hall: Great-West Life Student Residence is almost set to open and the new student-run daycare centre next door will be built this summer. Construction of the Richardson College for the Environment & Science complex is well underway. These expansions and improvements will increase our ability to deliver the high-quality programs for which we are known, and to participate fully both as a community partner and an institution with global commitments.

Global citizenship has never been more important. I am optimistic because I believe that you -- our next generation of community leaders, economists, artists and actors, scientists, politicians, teachers -- understand better than anyone that we need to respect and care for our planet, that we have a responsibility to champion human rights, and that compassion is worth cultivating.

You are the first truly interconnected generation. With social media such as Facebook, Twitter and YouTube, you have tools at your disposal to reach out and effect change, here at home and in the broader community, as never before.

Obtaining your degree from UWinnipeg in the downtown 'hub' of the city has allowed you to experience people from diverse cultures. You've honed your ability to think critically and look beyond the obvious, and to become socially aware.

It is my sincere hope that some of you will continue your academic careers with us. We are now one of the few places in Canada offering a Masters degree in Aboriginal Governance and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Human Rights and Global Studies. The University has embarked on a major drive to extend its academic excellence by promoting graduate programs that now also include a Master of Science in Applied Computer Science and Society, Master of Science in Bioscience, Technology and Public Policy and a Master of Arts in English with a Focus on Cultural Studies.

UWinnipeg is an innovative and flexible centre for excellence in emerging and established academic fields, and most importantly, UWinnipeg is a place that puts students first.

I encourage you to stay in touch with us. As new alumni, you are now members of a family of nearly 40,000 people who have passed through our doors as students and graduates.

Please accept my best wishes for your adventures ahead.

Sincerely yours,

Lloyd Axworthy
President and Vice-Chancellor,
The University of Winnipeg

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

To the Class of 2009:

On behalf of over 40,000 alumni let me offer my congratulations to you for completing your course of studies; I welcome you to membership in the University of Winnipeg Alumni Association.

You are each very fortunate to have had the opportunity to learn, build relationships at and contribute to a first-class university community. We too are privileged to have had this chance to learn from you. I encourage you, in whatever challenges and opportunities lie before you, to apply what you have learned here in the service of others – locally and globally.

Wherever your journey takes you, I encourage you to actively participate on Council and remain connected to us via Association activities and communications. We need you to help us in our quest to make our University a relevant and beneficial place to be. Your insights and experiences will be valuable.

All the best in your futures and again, WELCOME to the Alumni Family!

Claudius Soodeen (Class of '90)
President, the University of Winnipeg Alumni Association

NATIONAL ANTHEM

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!

From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

RETIREMENT OF THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

The audience is requested to remain in their places until the academic procession has retired.

An informal reception will be held immediately following the recessional on Spence Street.
We invite you to enjoy our campus.

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG
THE NINETIETH CONVOCATION

Honorees

Leonard Asper, BA, LLB Honorary Doctor of Laws

The Asper name resonates in our city for the family's outstanding contributions to the fabric of our community. Leonard Asper, President and CEO of Canwest Global Communications Corp, son of media mogul, Israel Asper, continues to carry on the family tradition for public service and philanthropy.

A graduate of The University of Winnipeg Collegiate, Asper has credited his education at The Collegiate for his success in finding the balance between structure and intellectual flexibility that has allowed him to thrive in all aspects of his life.

An accomplished pianist and a lawyer by training, Asper worked his way up the corporate ladder to direct one of Canada's largest media companies, with substantial interests in television, radio, new media and print in Canada, the United States, Europe, Australia, New Zealand and Turkey.

His leadership and generosity will benefit theatre and film students at UWinnipeg for many years to come. An extraordinary gift by Canwest Global Communications Corporation and Leonard Asper in December 2008 brought to life a new creative hub on campus, with the Canwest Centre for Theatre and Film, featuring state-of-the art performance, production and teaching facilities.

Asper remains active in the Joshua Foundation, a private charitable trust he established in 1999 that reflects his own diverse interests including the arts, culture, universities, health, social services and seniors residences.

Recently Asper was appointed to the Board of Directors of the University of Winnipeg Foundation by H. Sanford Riley, CM, Chancellor of The University of Winnipeg and Chair of the Board.

The University of Winnipeg is proud to present Leonard Asper with an Honorary Doctor of Laws in recognition of his many accomplishments and for his unwavering commitment to our campus and our community.

Donald Treffinger, BS, MS, PhD Honorary Doctor of Laws

Donald Treffinger is an internationally known researcher, writer, educator and speaker in the area of creativity and Creative Problem Solving, especially in the domain of gifted education. He is currently the President of the Center for Creative Learning in Sarasota, Florida and Professor Emeritus of Creative Studies at Buffalo State College, New York.

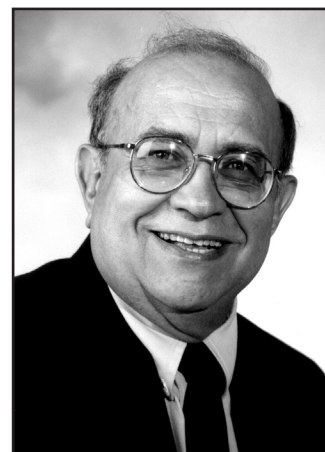

He has authored or co-authored more than 60 books and monographs, including Creative Problem Solving: An Introduction and Creative Approaches to Problem Solving, and more than 350 articles with the core philosophy that gifted programs should be as innovative, unique and ever-evolving as the exceptional students they serve.

Treffinger's keynote addresses at several high-profile University of Winnipeg events have inspired our Faculty of Education. He has provided training in problem-solving, creative styles and leadership to many of our faculty and staff. His Creative Problem Solving approach provides the curriculum foundation for our new Model School on campus, which opened in September 2008 to assist 20 high-school students develop to their fullest potential.

He has received numerous prestigious awards, including the National Association for Gifted Children's Distinguished Service Award, the E. Paul Torrance Creativity Award and the International Creativity Award from the World Council for Gifted and Talented Children. He is also Editor-in-Chief of Parenting for High Potential, a quarterly magazine for parents.

Treffinger's passion and commitment to creating accessible models in gifted education will continue to have a lasting impact in Manitoba.

H. Sanford Riley, CM, BA, LLB

Honorary Doctor of Laws

H. Sanford Riley has served as UWinnipeg Chancellor for nine years, during which time the University has shown remarkable growth and development as a campus.

He was appointed the founding Chairperson of The University of Winnipeg Foundation Board of Directors. During his time as Chair, a $70-million capital campaign has been launched and is now well underway. He also presently serves as a director on a number of boards, including Molson Coors Brewing Company and The Canada West Foundation, and he is the Chairperson of The North West Company Board of Directors.

Riley is the President & CEO of Richardson Financial Group Limited. He has served in this capacity since May 2003, following his career as Chairperson of the Board for Investors Group and subsequent to the nine-year period where he served as Investors Group President and Chief Executive Officer. His past and present involvement in community activities is extensive. His many roles have included that of Chairperson of the United Way Campaign in Winnipeg and Chairperson of the Manitoba Sports Federation. He served as Chairperson of the Board for the highly successful Pan American Games held in Winnipeg in 1999. He was also the Chairperson of the Business Council of Manitoba.

Riley's commitment to UWinnipeg has also been personal, as he made a generous donation to the school to establish a new fellowship fund.

The H. Sanford Riley Fellowships in Canadian History are designed to initiate dynamic relations between the University and the country's top historians. The fellowships will enable these historians to visit the University to undertake research projects, conduct academic seminars and offer public lectures on the history of Canada. University of Winnipeg is proud to present H. Sanford Riley with an Honorary Doctor of Laws in recognition of his service with great distinction to the University as its Sixth Chancellor and for his consistent contributions to our campus and our community.

André Oberlé, BA, MA, PhD

Fellow of United College

André Oberlé's commitment to The University of Winnipeg has spanned 37 years of dedicated service. His life-long passion for teaching and learning is evident when chatting with former students and colleagues. In addition, he's offered exceptional contributions to administration and self-governance.

Oberlé created a nurturing and supportive learning environment for his students as a gifted professor. Known for motivating his students, he helped them develop a real appreciation and understanding of the German language. His reputation for substance and style of presentation goes beyond our campus and includes the prestigious Goethe-Institute where he was invited to teach German and develop programs.

He was instrumental in the University's amalgamation of the Germanic and French Studies departments. Oberlé played a key role in the process, exhibiting tact and diplomacy.

Oberlé built an international reputation as a pioneer and promoter of sound learning technologies, innovative teaching strategies and best practice learning assessment methods. Oberlé was instrumental in motivating faculty to venture into new teaching technologies and develop online courses. He was also promoted the 'smart-classroom' development and expansion on campus.

Known for his solid and sensible style, Oberlé's excellent communication and mediation skills served the University well on more than 40 committees he chaired or contributed to as a member over the years. As an administrator, he served as Director, Centre for Innovation in Teaching and Learning, Associate Dean of Arts and Science, Consultant for Learning Technologies and Chair, Department of German Studies.

The University recognizes André Oberlé's generosity of time, professionalism, energy and expertise with admission as a Fellow in United College.

Mac Watts, BA, BD, PhD

Fellow of United College

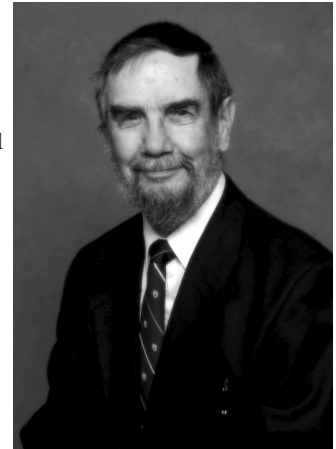

Mac Watts has served the United Church of Canada and The University of Winnipeg for more than 50 years with tireless dedication, influencing several generations of students and colleagues with the breadth and depth of his knowledge of Christian theology.

During those many years, Watts has served as an exceptional pastor, mentor, intellectual companion and theological conscience. He's taken on key leadership roles including Chaplain to the students of United College, teacher and then Dean of Theology at The University of Winnipeg.

A master communicator, Watts inspired more than one generation of United Church clergy to re-interpret and re-invigorate the Gospel for the contemporary world. He also reached a broader audience through his service on national committees with the United Church and service as President of the Canadian Theological society. Watts also edited the Touchstone Journal that, under his guidance, tackled issues such as the legacy of residential schools.

Just as importantly as his many accomplishments, Watts is described by those he has touched as straightforward, patient and kind – a man who served the University with great grace.

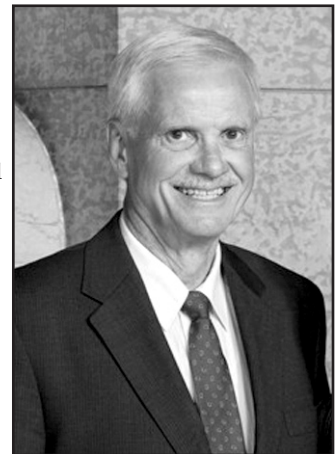

Harold King BA, BD, DMin

Fellow of United College

As Dean of Theology at The University of Winnipeg, King's visionary leadership and focus on collaboration led to the creation of the innovative Theological Consortium (now renamed the Theology Cooperative.) Twenty-three years later, the Cooperative has produced a very significant learning community with about 10 active partners linked to the University's Faculty of Theology. King was also the founder of the Pastoral Institutes in Winnipeg and Thunder Bay.

King has also been a leading pioneer in the discipline of Clinical Pastoral Education, now an internationally recognized vehicle for personal and social transformation that requires rigorous training and vocational scrutiny. King can be found at the centre of this network of excellence and continues to be on-call as an elder.

A graduate of United College, King was ordained to the ministry in the United Church of Canada in 1960. King's callings as pastor, theologian, therapist and educator have served The University of Winnipeg with distinction.

Annabelle Mays, BS, EdB, EdM, PhD Fellow of United College

Annabelle Mays is renowned for her tenacious leadership and vision, and she is a powerful and passionate advocate for the Faculty of Education at The University of Winnipeg. Her expertise in the field began as a teacher in public schools, where she spent seven years prior to joining the academic team at The University of Winnipeg.

Mays has been instrumental in designing UWinnipeg's education program. Her commitment and skillful negotiation brought final certification to our campus. She recruited excellent faculty members, which remains the core of the Bachelor of Education program and created an education program considered to be one of the best in North America.

Mays retired in 2008 after serving the University in numerous capacities including Associate Dean of Arts and Science, Director of Developmental Studies, Dean of Education and the Division of Continuing Education, and Academic and Special Projects Officer for the Office of VP Academic to list a few.

Mays also remained active in cutting-edge research and provided leadership within the University and across the province in the promotion of gender equity, represented the Faculty of Education provincially at the Teacher Education and Certification Committee, and promoted international links to the University.

Annabelle Mays admission to Fellowship in United College recognizes her immeasurable contributions and commitment to The University of Winnipeg. Her vision, leadership and superb administrative skills continue to influence the direction of this institution.

Neil Besner, BA (Hons), MA, PhD Marsha Hanen Award for Excellence in Creating Community Awareness

Neil Besner joined The University of Winnipeg's English Department in 1987 and since that time, he has made important contributions in the area of creating community awareness. In particular, his passion for liberal arts education has made him stand out.

Besner has immersed himself in the community, sharing his knowledge, expertise, enthusiasm and passion for literature and creative writing. He has distinguished himself by being very active with book clubs, writers' guilds and writers' festivals, and with publishing houses that promote the work of Manitoba writers. He has also provided analyses, reviews and insights for CBC Radio and the Winnipeg Free Press.

has been an active member and a past President of the Manitoba Writers' Guild and of the Writers' Festival. He has provided his expertise to local writers through Prairie Fire and Turnstone Press. He has written reviews, edited books and articles, and chaired events for Prairie Fire.

"The Marsha Hanen Award signals that a vital part of our work here is to strengthen our ties with the community," said Besner. "It is an honour to be recognized in this way."

Besner's passion, enthusiasm and commitment go well beyond the boundaries of UWinnipeg classrooms. He has been a longtime ambassador for liberal arts education and The University of Winnipeg.

Today, The University of Winnipeg is honoured to present Neil Besner with the Marsha Hanen Award for Excellence in Creating Community Awareness.

The University of Winnipeg Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of The University of Winnipeg was officially adopted by the governing bodies of the University during the academic session of 1972-73. The elements found within the Coat of Arms have been associated over the years with both Manitoba and Wesley Colleges, the ancestors of United College. The bunch of grapes in the lower portion of the inner shield derives from the Coat of Arms of Manitoba College. The grape symbol has its origin in the College seal adopted in the charter of 1871. The cross, the lamp, and the open book derive from the Coat of Arms of Wesley College, designed in 1897 by Dr. J.H. Riddell. The cross, the symbol of sacrificial service in the interest of humanity, was the basis for his design and upon it he placed a shield, the symbol of protection. The lamp, the symbol of light, also represents learning, to which the Colleges have been devoted to for over a century in the Province of Manitoba. The open book, representing instruction in the way of life and the bringing of understanding to the student, symbolizes knowledge in a general sense, although it may carry overtones of the Holy Scriptures in a more limited interpretation.

The motto, placed upon a scroll below, is the United College motto, her retained: Lux et Veritas Floreant (Let Light and Truth Flourish). The words catch the central import of the lamp (light) and the open book (truth), and express the hope that both may flourish (as the grape) in our country (the cross).

Academic Dress

*A*cademic dress originated in medieval times to provide warmth in the damp halls of learning. In its present form it includes a gown, hood (worn over the shoulders), and a cap or mortarboard. All universities have distinctive dress for each degree offered which explains the variety seen in the academic procession.

University of Winnipeg academic dress conforms to the North American Intercollegiate Code. All graduates wear a black gown which varies according to the degree conferred. The bachelor's gown is worn closed in front and is distinguished by its pointed sleeves. The master's gown is designed to be worn either open or closed in front and has closed sleeves with an opening to free the hands. The front portion of the sleeve below the opening has a long semi-circular cut-out. Doctorate gowns also may be worn open or closed. They are faced with velvet.

The edging colour on the hood indicates the faculty in which a degree is conferred: Theology – red; Science – gold; Education – blue; Arts – white. The width of edging is determined by the degree: three inches for doctors; two inches for masters and bachelors. Hoods are lined in red with a white chevron.

Honorary doctors' gowns are red in colour and are faced with white velvet. They are worn with red Tudor bonnets. The hood colour signifies the honorary degree: white for Laws; golden yellow for Science; admiralty blue for Letters; purple for Divinity. Hoods are lined in red and white, The University of Winnipeg colours. Fellows wear a gown of blue with neither hat nor hood. Members of the University's senior administration wear gowns of varying colours. They do not wear hoods.

The Banner

*T*he banner, prominently displaying the Coat of Arms, was unveiled in 1988. The volunteer effort of Pat Corner, Fran Farquhar, Susan Ferguson, and Sonya C. Wright took more than 1,000 hours. Over 400 meters of thread and 30 meters of wool material went into the project using traditional techniques such as quilting, embroidery, and crewel.
