Messages to the Graduands

From the Chancellor

Congratulations Graduates!

It's been a privilege to serve as your Chancellor and to celebrate with you as you graduate and move forward toward your chosen career.

Convocation is an important time to come together as fellow scholars, community members, family, and friends to recognize and celebrate your success. You've learned new ways of looking at the world and gained the knowledge and skills required to become leaders.

During your time at UWinnipeg, you accomplished many great things and demonstrated a drive and passion that will fuel your path forward in life. You don't have to look far to find University of Winnipeg graduates leading initiatives, volunteering their time, and championing change that makes an impact locally, nationally, and globally. This tight-knit community is rooting for you as you launch your career or take the next steps in your post-secondary journey.

We are so proud and I know only great things are ahead for you!

Chancellor

The University of Winnipeg

From the President

Congratulations Graduates!

Convocation is a special time for our University community and an important opportunity to celebrate your academic success. On behalf of the Board of Regents, our faculty, and staff, I extend our sincere congratulations.

During your time at The University of Winnipeg, you have developed critical-thinking skills, experienced the value of a diversity of views, and ignited your curiosity and determination to contribute to a better society.

Whether you are continuing your studies or pursuing your career, I know you will all become leaders in your communities. Your voices are important to the future of our province, country, and world. On behalf of The University of Winnipeg, your professors, instructors, and the staff who supported you throughout your academic journey, please accept our very best wishes.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "T A Mondor". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "T A" and the last name "Mondor" clearly distinguishable.

Todd A. Mondor, BA (Honours), MA, PhD

President and Vice-Chancellor
The University of Winnipeg

*Today you cross

From the Alumni Association

As President of the University of Winnipeg Alumni Association, I am pleased to offer my congratulations on behalf of the Association to the graduating class of 2023. Your hard work and dedication have culminated in this very special day.

With this achievement, this also becomes your very first day of being an Alumnus of this great University. As you cross this bridge from being a student to an Alumnus, you will be following in the footsteps of over 50,000 individuals who have shared the invaluable experience of coming together, learning, making new friends and just having fun at this very unique urban campus.

By becoming an active member of our Alumni Association, you can remain connected to and supportive of the University of Winnipeg and its students. Going forward we hope that, through your Alumni Association, you will maintain and enhance your professional and community affiliations. To assist you in this goal, The University of Winnipeg has recently purchased AlumniFire, a networking platform which will make accessible the limitless expertise within our Alumni ranks. Through this platform, we have created our own Online Community entitled 'UWinnipeg Connect.'

In the next few weeks, you will receive more information on how to join this free Online Community, which will allow you to share jobs, advice, events, ideas and more with your fellow Alumni. What a wonderful way for you, our Alumni, to give and get value from your university network!

Over 50 years ago, I was one of you. A graduate excitedly receiving my diploma and taking pictures with my family on the front lawn of Wesley Hall. Much has changed over these many years, but what has not changed is the thrill knowing that I made it! I am now a member of this wonderful University community for life. One of its alumni! Just as you are now!

As you leave the platform with your new diploma in hand, I will be there greeting you, welcoming you to our ranks, and handing you your Alumni Association pin. Please wear it proudly!

Judith Neumann, BAH '71

Clayton Sandy

Honorary Doctor of Laws

Clayton Sandy is a respected knowledge keeper, cultural advisor, and community activist who's spent his working life educating generations of non-Indigenous people in the province about the history of Indigenous people in this country.

His home community is Sioux Valley Dakota First Nation.

In Clayton's 38 years of service, he's had the opportunity to work in many provincial government departments, including Natural Resources, Energy and Mines, Labour, Civil Service Commission, Family Services, and Education and Training. He also did a two-year secondment at Stony Mountain Institution.

Clayton is the epitome of community bridge-building leadership in action, as he seizes every opportunity to work with Indigenous and non-Indigenous leadership to engage people and advance truth and reconciliation.

Diane Redsky, UWinnipeg Honorary Doctor of Laws recipient and Executive Director of the Ma Mawi Wi Chi Itata Centre, says Clayton has worked tirelessly over the years to make significant contributions to the growth and development of Winnipeg's urban Indigenous community.

She added that Clayton's work throughout the decades has inspired other Manitobans and shows that one person guided by a greater purpose can, and does, make all the difference.

From 2016 to 2020, Clayton was the Indigenous Ambassador for Circles of Reconciliation, a non-profit grassroots community project that seeks to promote reconciliation between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people in Canada. During his time in this role, he trained more than 150 facilitators.

Clayton is an active volunteer. He was President of the First Nations Pavilion at Folklorama, Knowledge Keeper and Cultural Advisor for MacDonald Youth Services, and chaired and participated on many boards in his community, the province, and at the national level. He is a frequent consultant with Immigration Partnership Winnipeg, where he helps educate newcomers about the Treaties.

Clayton also attended and presented his life narrative at the Truth and Reconciliation conferences across Canada.

For his commitment to advancing reconciliation, The University of Winnipeg is proud to bestow an Honorary Doctor of Laws on Clayton Sandy.

Honourees

Connie Walker

BA, MBA

Honorary Doctor of Laws

Connie Walker is a devoted community builder who developed a deep understanding of the community and issues of poverty, racism, inequity, and exclusion early in her career as a public health nurse working in Winnipeg's most impoverished neighbourhoods.

In addition to her Bachelor of Nursing and MBA from the University of Manitoba, Walker also graduated from the Executive Development Program at the Ivey School of Business.

After 22 years in public service at the City of Winnipeg, Walker returned to the community, joining United Way Winnipeg in 2008 as Vice-President of Community Investment. In 2014, she was named President and Chief Executive Officer.

During her tenure with United Way Winnipeg, Walker has been a passionate leader who's inspired thousands of Winnipeggers from across the community to work together to make Winnipeg better for all. Under her leadership, United Way Winnipeg volunteers and donors raised more than $160 million, enabling stable, multi-year funding for the more than 125 frontline agencies and programs that help youth achieve their potential, families move out of poverty, and improve the health of people and their neighbourhoods.

Deeply committed to working in partnership and to addressing systemic inequities, Walker also led the organization's focus on social innovation to end homelessness and create youth mental health hubs.

Among other things, Walker championed the strengthening of family resource centres, the introduction of the 211 phone service to make it easier for all Manitobans to connect with local supports, and the creation of a consortium of Winnipeg businesses to increase Indigenous youth employment.

Walker's strong leadership was evident through the global pandemic when community needs grew significantly and fundraising became more challenging. United Way Winnipeg played a critical role, serving as a testimony to Walker's unwavering commitment to the city's most vulnerable populations.

For her staunch belief in the value of ongoing learning and her decades-long commitment to building a more inclusive and caring Winnipeg, The University of Winnipeg is proud to bestow an Honorary Doctor of Laws on Connie Walker.

Honourees

Dr. Brian Stevenson

BA, MA, PhD

Fellowship in United College

Few have been as committed to academic excellence at The University of Winnipeg as Dr. Brian Stevenson.

Serving as UWinnipeg's Provost and Vice-President, Academic from 2006 to 2010, Dr. Stevenson enhanced UWinnipeg's presence locally, nationally, and globally. Leaning on expertise gained from several roles, he brought steady leadership to his post and imparted a vision that propelled the University to greater heights.

Among the many initiatives Dr. Stevenson led during his time at UWinnipeg was the establishment of the Faculty of Business and Economics. Dr. Stevenson fostered an environment of collaboration through which the creation of new graduate programs enabled Global College to become part of an international network of universities engaged in graduate Indigenous development studies.

His extraordinary efforts expanded beyond academic offerings. In fact, increasing access to education was among his greatest achievements.

His commitment to accessibility for low-income students helped shape the present-day campus, and strategies implemented by Dr. Stevenson assisted in attracting Indigenous students, new Canadians, and adult learners. He also took the leadership to implement supports, such as the Opportunity Fund and the Model School.

Since his departure from UWinnipeg, Dr. Stevenson has continued to change the landscape of post-secondary education in Canada, as he is presently the President and CEO of University Partnerships at Navitas North America.

In recognition of his visionary leadership and significant contributions to the institution, The University of Winnipeg is proud to honour Dr. Brian Stevenson with Fellowship in United College.

Colin Russell

BA (Hons), BEd, MA

Robin H. Farquhar Award for Excellence in Contributing to Self-Governance

Colin Russell has made many valuable contributions to The University of Winnipeg's self-governance in his 38 years on campus.

As University Registrar, he is a deep well of institutional knowledge, providing leadership in Student Services and support to Senior Administration. He is also a frequent resource for those seeking guidance, and handles each request with grace.

Russell serves on a dozen internal and external committees, where his respectful demeanor and balanced outlook are appreciated. He understands the student experience and brings this perspective to his committee work.

Russell is the voice of the University in more ways than one. A classically-trained vocalist, he sings the national anthem at Convocation and flawlessly pronounces thousands of students' names as they cross the stage to accept their diploma.

His personality resonates with his colleagues. His open, flexible management style allows them to explore new ideas, while his good humour puts them at ease. Each December, he sends a personalized holiday email to every member of Student Services, thanking them for their hard work.

"I can think of no one at The University of Winnipeg more deserving of this award," said Dr. James Currie, Past Interim President and Vice-Chancellor.

For shaping, supporting, and deepening the spirit of self-governance, The University of Winnipeg is proud to honour Colin Russell with the Robin H. Farquhar Award for Excellence in Contributing to Self-Governance.

Honourees

John Olfert

BA, FCPA, FCGA

Distinguished Alumni Award

John Olfert was an exemplary student who embodied leadership and passion throughout his time at The University of Winnipeg and with the Wesmen Athletics Men's Volleyball program.

Thus, it's no surprise he brought those same qualities to his leadership role as President and Chief Operating Officer of True North Sports + Entertainment and the Winnipeg Jets Hockey Club (True North), where he has helped shape Winnipeg's sports and entertainment community.

Olfert, who completed his Bachelor of Arts in Administrative Studies at UWinnipeg in 1991, has been part of True North's leadership team for more than two decades.

Olfert began his career at True North as its Chief Financial Officer, before being appointed as the President and COO. During his tenure, he has been instrumental in the development of the Canada Life Centre and hockey for all centre, the acquisition of the NHL's Winnipeg Jets, and the return of the AHL's Manitoba Moose. He currently serves as an Alternate Governor for the Winnipeg Jets on the NHL's Board of Governors.

Olfert also remains an ardent UWinnipeg supporter, be it through guest lectures or supporting the Wesmen Scholarship Fund.

Prior to joining True North, Olfert spent several years working in roles with Winnipeg-based not-for-profit entities. He has also remained active in the community, both coaching and on the Boards of Directors that have included: U SPORTS, Volleyball Manitoba, and the True North Youth Foundation.

In 2019, UWinnipeg's Business Administration Students' Association honoured Olfert with its Distinguished Alumni Award, and he has been named a Fellow by the Chartered Professional Accountants of Manitoba.

The University of Winnipeg Alumni Association is proud to recognize John Olfert as the recipient of its highest honour, the Distinguished Alumni Award.

Honourees

Dr. Ken McCluskey

BA (Hons), MA, PhD

Professor Emeritus

Dr. Ken McCluskey's exceptional academic achievements have left an ineffaceable mark on The University of Winnipeg's Faculty of Education.

His impressive scholarship and creative intelligence have led to innovative programs that have improved learning for underserved and marginalized youth.

Known for his selfless and generous spirit, Dr. McCluskey has dedicated his career, through scholarship, to creating ways to uncover hidden abilities in individuals and reducing the psychological, situational, and institutional barriers that prevent them from achieving their full potential.

He has made a difference in many lives through his work to develop school and community programs, and his research in the areas of giftedness, ADHD, mentoring, and at-risk children and youth has significantly influenced researchers and practitioners.

Dr. McCluskey's work distills complex research into theories and practices that are easy to comprehend. With a foundation in sound academic literature, he approaches challenging topics with a delightful blend of humour and empathy.

He was part of the team that created the successful Community-based Aboriginal Teacher Education Program, which nurtures and supports Indigenous educational assistants as they become teachers. Additionally, he helped establish the Immigrant Teacher Education Program to help internationally trained teachers become teachers in Manitoba.

A prodigious writer, Dr. McCluskey has more than 100 published journal articles and chapters, and more than 20 books to his credit, including Lost Prizes: Talent Development and Problem Solving with At-Risk Students.

Dr. McCluskey served three terms as Dean of Education. He has also generated millions of dollars in grants and contracts, delivered hundreds of lectures worldwide, and received numerous awards at UWinnipeg and abroad.

The University of Winnipeg is proud to honour Dr. Ken McCluskey as Professor Emeritus.

Honourees

Lee Hong

BA, MEd

Stars of Spence Street Prize

For more than 20 years, Lee Hong has helped international students excel at The University of Winnipeg.

In her work as an academic advisor with International, Immigrant, and Refugee Student Services (IIRSS), Hong is known for her calm, quiet demeanor and student-first attitude. While there are now three academic advisors in IIRSS, Hong was the only one for many years, serving 13 per cent of the University's student population.

She has worked closely with incoming students from more than 70 countries, and her personalized advice makes students feel more confident in their studies and in their choice of UWinnipeg.

Hong's dedication to student success is second to none. From visiting 15 Chinese cities in 20 days on a recruitment trip, to volunteering as an usher at Convocation, she's consistently gone above and beyond throughout her career.

When the pandemic arrived, she quickly learned new technologies and helped students navigate the online registration system and travel restrictions.

"Lee displayed an extraordinary ability to connect with students despite cultural differences and language barriers," a former supervisor said. "Her calm, patient, and poised manner gave international students an anchor here on campus, and in Canada."

In the office, Hong is the epitome of team spirit, offering to help colleagues whenever she can. She always goes the extra mile to make sure her team feels motivated and supported.

For always leading by example with kindness, compassion, and humanity, The University of Winnipeg is proud to award Lee Hong with the Stars of Spence Street Prize.

Honourees

Dr. Lisa Sinclair

BA (Hons), PhD

Erica and Arnold Rogers Award for Excellence in Research and Scholarship

Dr. Lisa Sinclair is a scholar, teacher, and mentor who has made considerable contributions to the understanding of human social behaviour.

As a social-cognitive psychologist, her innovative research helps society understand what often goes unstated or unexamined in social interactions. Dr. Sinclair's main research focus is the psychology of stereotyping and prejudice – a topic that only grows more and more important with each passing year.

Her work is interdisciplinary. She is adept at working across the silos of traditional disciplines to address pressing and complex research questions, and her research has been funded by NSERC and SSHRC.

Dr. Sinclair is well-known across Canada. She is a member of the SSHRC Insight Grant adjudication committee for psychology. She has also held numerous positions with the Social and Personality Section of the Canadian Psychological Association, including serving on the executive for four years.

A devoted mentor, Dr. Sinclair has supervised more than 100 undergraduate research projects. Her students often go on to present at national and international conferences. She also models collaboration, listing students as co-authors in nearly all of her publications.

The impact of Dr. Sinclair's scholarship goes beyond the traditional academic venues of her discipline. Her work has been cited in law journals and she has been asked to be an expert witness in court cases. Her work is also heavily cited in articles about workplaces, and in the popular press.

The University of Winnipeg is proud to present Dr. Lisa Sinclair with the Erica and Arnold Rogers Award for Excellence in Research and Scholarship.

Honourees

Dr. Kelly Gorkoff

BA, MA PhD

Clifford J. Robson Memorial Award for Teaching Excellence

Dr. Kelly Gorkoff's student-centered teaching style has earned her the recognition and esteem of students and colleagues.

As Chair and Associate Professor in the Department of Criminal Justice, Dr. Gorkoff's scholarly interests include social theory, particularly critical political economy and feminist theory. Her research includes public inquiries, social determinants of homicide, systems of sex work, and community mobilization.

Dr. Gorkoff was instrumental in developing the theoretical core of the department. She believes that critical thinkers make a stronger and more progressive society.

Her teaching excellence lies in her commitment in ensuring students discover and develop their intellectual potential. Her love of teaching is reflected in her teaching load. She often teaches above her required courses to help waitlisted students complete their degrees, which has resulted in a teaching record that is higher than the average professor.

Dr. Gorkoff's students consistently say her courses have impacted their lives and the way they think about justice issues. She encourages students to gain a more comprehensive and profound understanding of the criminal justice system by seeking knowledge beyond the traditional bounds of disciplines and by attempting to unify them.

She engages her students as colleagues in the classroom and accommodates the learning needs of the class, which creates a fluid learning process. Her students credit her ability to convey difficult concepts in a way that is accessible, inspiring, and instills a love for academia.

The University of Winnipeg is proud to present Dr. Kelly Gorkoff with the Clifford J. Robson Memorial Award for Teaching Excellence.

Honourees

Cameron Adams

BA, BEd

Valedictorian

Cameron Adams has dedicated his life to Indigenous language revitalization.

After taking UWinnipeg's first-year Cree courses, Adams worked with Elders and other community members to create the n-dialect language app, nēhinawēwin, which familiarizes users with Swampy Cree words and phrases. The app was released at the beginning of 2022.

"Making space for Indigenous languages in Canada is what I want to do for the rest of my life," he said. "We need to speed up the revitalization process, speed up the documentation, and continue community building. I want real change."

Adams, who was named a McCall MacBain Scholarship recipient this spring, will be pursuing the Ad Hoc Master of Arts program in Indigenous Language Revitalization at McGill University this fall. He's graduating with Bachelor of Arts in Indigenous Languages and Bachelor of Education in History.

He says it was shocking to find out he had been chosen as Spring Convocation Valedictorian, as his only focus this final term was graduating and preparing for his master's studies.

"I am really grateful to have this opportunity," he said. "I've already had a great year and this is the cherry on top of my whole graduation."

As he looks back at his six years at UWinnipeg, Adams says he'll really miss the campus community.

From living in McFeetors Hall for four years, serving as the Student Representative on the Board of Regents and on the mental health committee, starting his mornings in Riddell Hall with a coffee from Diversity Food Services, and spending most days at the Aboriginal Student Services Centre, he was an active member of the University community from day one.

Adam's advice for the Class of 2023 is simple: "Don't be afraid to pursue challenges. You have your education behind you and you can do anything you want to in life. Take every opportunity you possibly can and use it to grow."

Honourees

Shae Torres

BA (Hons)

Valedictorian

Shae Torres is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts (Hons) degree in Psychology.

The 23-year-old chose UWinnipeg in 2018 because of the small class sizes and access to world-class faculty members.

"I liked how intimate and small it was, and it felt like a nice transition from high school," Torres said. "I feel like I got to know my classmates and my professors really well because of that, so I'm super grateful."

As part of the psychology honours program's hands-on learning placement, Torres volunteered at New Directions, an organization supporting individuals living with a disability. In her free time, she also volunteered with Special Olympics Manitoba.

The COVID-19 pandemic meant Torres did most of her learning online. She, nevertheless, formed tight connections with her honours cohort.

"We all started making group chats online and I feel like we became really close that way," she said. "We would meet on Zoom after classes and work on things together."

Her academic path was influenced by a second-year course on sex and gender taught by Dr. Lisa Sinclair.

"Ever since that class, I just became really, really interested in social psychology, and I kept taking her classes and eventually asked her to be my thesis advisor," Torres said. "She's been such a great research mentor for me and motivated me to pursue psychology all the way."

Torres plans to pursue a master's degree abroad and then return to Canada for a PhD in social psychology. In the meantime, she has begun a one-year term as the Canadian Wildlife Federation's equity, diversity, and inclusion coordinator.

"Diversity and social justice are something I'm really passionate about," Torres said. "I thought this would be a good transition to the professional world and a chance to put the things I learned into practice."

Torres' advice to her fellow students is to "soak it all in" and practice self-care.

"It does seem hard in the moment, but it's all worth it. I think you'll look back and realize those were some of the funnest times of your life."

Honourees

Simon DePasquale

BSc (Hons)

Valedictorian

Simon DePasquale grew up with a love for the outdoors and, in particular, fish and fishing. That passion has trickled into his studies where his love of fish and science meet.

A member of the Upper Mohawk band, Six Nations of the Grand River Territory, DePasquale has excelled at every level of his studies and is now pursuing research with a goal to protect and manage Indigenous fisheries.

His pursuit and curiosity have translated into several research projects in the Hasler Fish Biology and Conservation Lab. Under the guidance of Dr. Caleb Hasler and Dr. Jennifer Jeffrey, his research has been presented at four national science conferences and will lead to several publications.

DePasquale also found time to participate in campus life. This included serving as President of The Wildlife Society, as well as volunteering with UWinnipeg's Chapter of the Canadian Indigenous Science and Engineering Society. He also helped mentor current and future students by working as a lab demonstrator and hosting Indigenous high school groups on campus.

During his time at UWinnipeg, DePasquale earned a place on the Dean's Honour List as a Student of Highest Distinction every year of his studies. He also received more than 20 academic awards and scholarships, including two Natural Sciences and Engineering Research Council of Canada (NSERC) Undergraduate Student Research Awards.

He was also recently awarded the prestigious NSERC Canada Graduate Scholarship. This award will allow him to complete a Master of Science at Wilfrid Laurier University in Waterloo, Ontario, which he has already begun. He is currently researching the overwintering ecology of arctic char in Kugluktuk, Nunavut to help protect this food resource for local Inuit communities.

To the Class of 2023, DePasquale shares this advice: "Follow your passions and find a way to incorporate what makes you happy into your career."

The background of the page is a large, semi-transparent red crest of the University of Winnipeg. The crest features a central shield with a lamp of knowledge on the left and an open book on the right. Below the shield is a banner with the word 'LUX' and a cross. To the right of the shield is a cluster of grapes. The entire image is set against a solid red background.

Convocation Tradition

Academic Dress

Academic dress originated in medieval times to provide warmth in the damp halls of learning. In its present form, it includes a gown, hood (worn over the shoulders) and, a cap or mortarboard.

All universities have distinctive dress for each degree offered, which explains the variety seen in the academic procession.

The University of Winnipeg academic dress conforms to the North American Intercollegiate Code. All graduates wear a black gown, which varies according to the degree conferred. The bachelor's gown is worn closed in front and is distinguished by its pointed sleeves. The master's gown is designed to be worn either open or closed in front and has closed sleeves with an opening to free the hands. The front portion of the sleeve below the opening has a long semi-circular cut-out. Doctorate gowns also may be worn open or closed. They are faced with velvet.

The edging colour on the hood indicates the faculty in which a degree is conferred: Graduate Studies – red; Science – gold; Education – blue; Arts – white; Business and Economics – brown; Kinesiology and Applied Health – green.

The width of edging is determined by the degree: three inches for doctors; two for masters and bachelors. Hoods are lined in red with a white chevron.

Honorary doctors' gowns are red in colour and are faced with white velvet. They are worn with red Tudor bonnets. The hood colour signifies the honorary degree: white for Laws; golden yellow for Science; admiralty blue for Letters; purple for Divinity. Hoods are lined in red and white – The University of Winnipeg colours. Fellows wear a gown of blue with neither hat nor hood. Members of the University's senior administration wear gowns of varying colours. They do not wear hoods.

Indigenous Graduation Stoles

Destiny Seymour is an Anishinaabe interior designer who is creating her own textiles that are reviving local Indigenous pottery and bone tool patterns from Manitoba. These ancient patterns have been dated from 400 to over 3,000 years old. Indigo Arrows is a company founded by Destiny that turns these textiles into modern home goods.

Destiny was approached to design custom graduation stoles for the Indigenous graduating students of The University of Winnipeg.

Each linen stole is handmade and block printed in Winnipeg. The pattern design is inspired by the repeated and delicate pattern stamping found on local Indigenous pottery, with colours reflecting The University of Winnipeg.

The University of Winnipeg Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of The University of Winnipeg was officially adopted by the governing bodies of The University during the academic session of 1972-73. The elements found within the Coat of Arms have been associated over the years with both Manitoba and Wesley Colleges, the ancestors of United College. The bunch of grapes in the lower portion of the inner shield derives from the Coat of Arms of Manitoba College. The grape symbol has its origin in the College seal adopted in the charter of 1871. The cross, the lamp, and the open book derive from the Coat of Arms of Wesley College, designed in 1897 by Dr. J.H. Riddell. The cross – the symbol of sacrificial service in the interest of humanity – was the basis for his design and upon it he placed a shield – the symbol of protection. The lamp – the symbol of light – also represents learning, to which the Colleges have been devoted for over a century in the Province of Manitoba. The open book – representing instruction in the way of life and the bringing of understanding to the student – symbolizes knowledge in a general sense, although it may carry overtones of the Holy Scriptures in a more limited interpretation.

The motto, placed upon a scroll below, is the United College motto, here retained: Lux et Veritas Floreant (Let Light and Truth Flourish). The words catch the central import of the lamp (light) and the open book (truth), and express the hope that both may flourish (as the grape) in our country (the cross).

Teaching of the Star Blanket

Across many Indigenous Nations, the foundational understanding is that we are all related. This understanding includes our relationship to all beings everywhere – and to all things, from the earth to the sky and beyond. In this understanding, we are beings that come from the stars and our relationship extends to this dimension. The teachings and gifts of the Star Blanket extend from this understanding.

The teaching of the Star Blanket is different across nations. Though the purpose remains the same, it is a healing modality.

From the Ojibwe comes the story of a young baby that had an incurable illness. Her family took her to a medicine woman, who after four days was given the teaching to make a Star Blanket and wrap the little one in it. It was the star people that would do the healing. After four days of ceremony, the little girl was unwrapped.

From the Dakota comes the teaching that the blanket represents the star that we come from, and to be wrapped in the blanket reconnects to our original home and a place of safety.

From the Cree comes a similar teaching, though the points of the star are different.

Today, the Star Blanket is often used as a gift of honour and recognition of relationships. How honourable it is indeed to be given a gift that reconnects the recipient to the spirit of all things.

A World of Diversity

Our campus is a place of inclusion and the diversity of our student population is a tremendous strength. While some of our students grew up around the corner, others come from First Nations and Treaty areas across Manitoba, from provinces across Canada, and from communities around the globe. They have come here to learn and grow – and we are proud to help them prepare for a bright future and get ready to make their mark on the world.
