

Accountant – Public Practice

Are you interested in working as part of a team where you can contribute and make a real difference to those around you on a daily basis? Gislason Targownik Peters Chartered Professional Accountants (GTP) is looking for you to join our team.

We are a quickly growing independent accounting firm we strive to be the go to firm for small and mid-size owner managed companies providing accounting and business services to enable them to successfully grow, manage their businesses and contribute meaningfully to our community.

We also support the community organizations these business owners are involved in through high quality, professional audit services.

In order to accomplish this, we provide an environment where everyone on our team are valued and successful within our firm, their families and our communities.

You will work directly with our partners, managers, and other team members on real client projects from day one.
