

September 2022 - Tax - Full-Time (CPA)

Join us in cultivating a collaborative workplace driven by unique perspectives. We're proud PwC advances a culture that helps everyone to thrive. It's one of the reasons we're recognized as a "Top Company" to work for in Canada. As you ignite a meaningful career and build a network that'll last for life, you'll work with people from diverse backgrounds and industries to help solve important problems, empowered by technology to turn today's ideas into tomorrow's solutions. We cultivate an environment in which our differences are embraced and our people feel comfortable bringing their whole selves to work. An empowering and diverse environment starts with you. Are you ready to get started?

What you'll create and do:

There's more to tax than meets the eye. It's more than preparing tax returns - it's about identifying business opportunities. Tax impacts the bottom line and is on the board agenda. Businesses rely on sound tax advice to help them finance operations, identify a new office location overseas and even how to reward people.

At PwC Tax, we're on the cutting edge of one of the most challenging and intellectually rigorous fields, working and teaming with some of the world's largest organizations on tax planning, global structuring, and tax controversy. Our teams collaborate with subject-matter specialists and connect with our clients to develop innovative ideas and results.

Our Tax CPA program will provide you with many opportunities and tools to broaden your consulting skills and deepen your theoretical and technical knowledge. Through wide-ranging assignments, you'll determine where your greatest talents and interests lie, and align to an area following the program.

As your career progresses, you'll advise on publicly traded corporations, private companies and high net worth individuals on intricate tax matters, helping them comply with the growing and increasingly complex tax compliance requirements.

What you'll bring to this role:

As we align our business model to the future of work, you'll have the opportunity to work in a hybrid virtual/in-office environment with clients and colleagues across Canada.

- Enrolled in or completed post-secondary education and pursuing the Canadian CPA designation
- An interest in upskilling for a digital world and technology trends, an openness to learning new tools and adapting how you work
- A demonstrated commitment to valuing differences and working alongside diverse people and perspectives
- Strong written and verbal communication skills to articulate new ideas
- Highly detail oriented with excellent organizational and analytical skills; an ability to think broadly and to ask questions about data, facts and other information to deliver quality to our clients
- Share and collaborate effectively with others, building relationships which are genuine and rooted in trust
- Ability to easily adapt and prioritize, demonstrating project management skills to handle changing priorities
- Examples of alignment with PwC Values: Acting with Integrity, Working Together, Care, Reimagine the Possible and Make a Difference
- You'll be comfortable travelling to cities across Canada (when deemed safe to do so by applicable public health or regulatory authorities and PwC)
- This role requires that you are legally entitled to work for PwC in Canada for the intended duration

- of the offer/contract.
- We'd love it even more if you're bilingual in English and French, however this isn't a requirement.

Note: We only allow you to submit one application; however you are able to select a second and third office preference.
