

THE RILEY LECTURES

In Canadian History

Winnipeg 150: Community Perspectives on Celebrating Winnipeg's Past

Moderator:

Niigaanwewidam Sinclair, Department of Indigenous Studies, University of Manitoba, author of Wînipêk: Visions of Canada from an Indigenous Centre

Panelists:

Elder Dr. Albert McLeod, Welcoming Winnipeg Initiative, City of Winnipeg

Nadia Thompson, Chairperson and Program Director, Black History Manitoba

Alex Judge and Sabrina Janke, co-hosts, One Great History podcast

Shauna MacKinnon, Department of Urban and Inner-City Studies, University of Winnipeg, co-editor Indigenous Resistance & Development in Winnipeg 1960-2000

October 9, 2024

7:00 – 8:30 pm

Convocation Hall

University of Winnipeg

515 Portage Avenue

This event is free, open to the public, and will also be available online.

To attend online, register at uwinnipeg.ca/history

THE UNIVERSITY OF WINNIPEG

H. Sanford Riley Centre
for Canadian History

