

INSTITUTE OF URBAN STUDIES

Cash Prize
$500

Call For Student Papers

The Institute of Urban Studies invites submissions for papers from University of Winnipeg undergrad honours and graduate students on any topic related to urban studies. The IUS will award the best paper – judged by referees from the Department of Geography – with a $500 prize and online publication in the IUS Student Paper Series.

Requirements

- › University of Winnipeg student in: An Undergrad Honours Program or a Graduate Program.
- › Students Are Encouraged to Enter a Paper Written for Coursework during the 2024-2025 academic year.
- › Submissions must directly address a topic or issue relevant to urban studies. See the IUS website for details.
- › One entry per author per year.
- › Submission Deadline – April 30th, 2025; Prize awarded June 2025.

Submissions

Submissions should be in Word format.

Submissions or questions to:

Jillian Golby-Borsa | 204.982.1140 | j.golby@uwinnipeg.ca

The Institute of Urban Studies is a research centre in the Department of Geography at The University of Winnipeg. Since 1969 the IUS has been both an academic and an applied research centre, committed to examining urban development issues in a broad, non-partisan manner.

The Institute examines inner-city, housing, homelessness, Indigenous, and community development issues. In addition to its ongoing involvement in research, the IUS brings in visiting scholars, hosts workshops, seminars and conferences, and acts in partnership with other organizations in the community to effect positive change.

See the IUS website for past winners

Institute of Urban Studies

uwinnipeg.ca/ius